

Spring 1994

at last...

THE HUGH SHIELDS

Four years ago Delta Xi Chapter made it their goal to become one of the top ten chapters of Delta Tau Delta International Fraternity. On February 13, 1994 at the Regional Conference in Champaign, Illinois this goal was achieved. Delta Xi was recognized for the first time in their history as a Hugh Shields Chapter.

The Hugh Shields Award (Huey) is given annually by the International Fraternity to recognize excellence in every aspect of chapter programming. The award recognizes the top ten of Delta Tau Delta's 128 chapters. Delta Xi received a Hugh Shields plaque that will hang in the chapter library, and the ever impressive Hugh Shields Flag. The Flag models the purple, white, and gold flag of the fraternity. Written along the top is the Greek word προτιμοι, which translates to "The Best Among Equals."

Delta Xi also received their third consecutive Court of Honor, which recognizes the top 20 of Delta Tau Delta's 128 chapters. The Hugh Shields top ten designation was a result of hard work and dedication in areas such as academics, campus, community and rush, membership education, ritual improvement, and chapter management.

Delta Xi will get to display its Hugh Shields flag in the shelter for one year. When the chapter receives its fifth Hugh Shields, the flag will be retired and remain with the chapter in recognition of this achievement. With the momentum the chapter has gained in the past four years Delta Xi will retire its first Huey in 1998!

Delta Xi also received "Delt 2000" recognition for our outstanding alumni participation and involvement. This award is given to chapters who have at least 15 active alumni that each alumnus spends a minimum of two days a year helping the fraternity and its members. This includes an active house corporation, Chapter Advisor, and Faculty Advisor. The entire undergraduate chapter would like to extend a thank you to all alumni who helped make the Hugh Shields and Delt 2000 awards possible.

We are all saddened by the tragic death of Brother Erickson. Brother Erickson was the first officer on Northwest Airlink Flight 5719, which crashed in Hibbing, MN, on Dec. 1, 1993. It is hard to grasp the realization of this accident that has struck so close to home for many of us.

Chad joined Delta Tau Delta in 1986 and graduated in 1990. Chad touched all of our lives in many ways. If it was not getting some friendly advice about academics from him when he was the Academic Chair for the Chapter, it was taking a ride of thrill with him in his new Ford Sho or Escort, or it was just simply listening in amazement as he played the piano. Chad was very goal oriented and put himself into everything he did. Chad helped many of us achieve our own goals by completing our check rides with him when he was a phase check pilot at the University. Chad reached his goal when he completed his life long dream of flying for an airline.

Forty-four Delts were in attendance for Brother Erickson's Funeral. An abundance of wonderful memories was told among each other, and ensured that Brother Erickson would not be forgotten in our hearts. His memories will go on to help others with a scholarship endowment in memory of Brother Erickson that is being established by his brothers, family, and friends within Delta Tau Delta's Educational Foundation to provide scholarships for outstanding aviation majors.

Chad will always be in our memories. Every time we fly he will be with us, everytime we look into the sky we know he will be there.

Presidents Report

Dear Brothers,

I am honored to announce that Delta Xi has won our first HUGH SHIELDS award! This has been a long sought goal of the chapter for several years. Delta Xi is one of three chapters which recieved this award at the regional confrence. We hope with continued hard work, we can win the fraternitys highest award in the following years.

The regional conference was held in Champaign, Illinios. Ten men represented the chapter. All of us that attended, enjoyed ourselves and learned many new ideas. At the conference, we also recieved our fourth Court of Honor award and a plaque in recognition of the Delt-2000. The Delt-2000 is awarded to those chapter with excellent alumni support and participation. Delta Xi is honored to have Tom Hanson, longtime Chapter Advisor, be appointed to Division Vice President. Congratulations Tom! The men at the conference were fortunate to hear from our International President, Norval Stephens, who shared some of his insight and experiences.

A chapter consultant recently visited the chapter, Andrew P. McDevitt. He thanked us for the North Dakota hospitality. He mentioned that we were an outstanding chapter, yet we can still improve. He placed emphasis on Rush, Academic, and Finace. He left us some expectations in these areas and with a little work we strive to be even a stronger chapter.

We look forward to having Norval and all our alumni return next month for the 75th anniversary (March 26th). There will be many events along with the chance to attend the Ritual prior to the dinner and formal at the Westward Ho that night.

The chapter has many new men holding positions and they're working hard this year! We have very strong executive council with a lot of energy to lead. Our goal is to continue the Hugh Shields award in '95! Through our programing we can succesfully reach this goal!

Fraternally,

Dave Sickels,
Chapter President.

Adopt a School

We have an exciting new community service project here at the University of North Dakota. What is even more exciting, is that this program was brought to this campus by one of our own brothers.

Matt Oosting, Interfraternity Council Vice-President, is one of the two Student Coordinators of the Adopt-A-School program. This is a community service project that is geared towards the "Education of Youth." Sound familiar? I hope so. Matt learned about the program while attending the Undergraduate Interfraternity Institute last summer in Indianapolis. Matt was one of two UND students to attend the conference sponsored by the National Interfraternity Institute.

The Adopt-A-School program is fully endorsed by the Interfraternity and the Panhellenic Councils at the University of North Dakota. West Elementary School, which borders University Park, was approached by UND Greeks to be our adopted school because the principle, Mike Johnson, a UND Greek himself, was so supportive of the program, and because the school was in close proximity to the university community.

The purpose of the program is to help elementary school students with reading, writing, math, science, and other school related activities. The volunteers will be volunteering about one hour a week, some possibly more, providing individual help, or running small groups in the classroom. We all know how important it is to get more personalized attention while receiving an education, and that is what this program provides.

Currently, out of 21 Greek chapters on this campus, about 12 of them have volunteers working with a group of about 25 at West Elementary. So far all of the volunteers have had good experiences at the school and the program has received much needed publicity from the Dakota Student and the Grand Forks Herald.

Oosting plans to make the program a permanent here at the university and hopes that this community project will better our relations within the community of Grand Forks

Academic Report

With elections coming to an end, the new Director of Academic Affairs is Dave Dotson. This new title was amended this past semester for the original Academic Advisor. This coming semester is going to be run much the same way as the previous semester, but with a few small changes.

The changes will primarily consist of having more speakers over to the chapter house to talk about important topics such as job interns, investments, goals, and hopefully resumes. This next semester there will be a big emphasis on utilizing the Universities resources. The study time cards we use to keep track of study time, have been working pretty well. They will be used again this semester and will be enforced and kept track of with more efficiency. Some of our lower classmen without majors in mind will have an appointment made for them at the career counseling center, to get them thinking about their future plans and goals.

The academic goals for this semester are to get people thinking seriously about the importance of their academic achievements and recognize those who excel and attend the activities planned, this way we might realize the main reason why we are here at the University of North Dakota.

HUGH SHIELDS AWARD
FOR CHAPTER EXCELLENCE

Stan Moe Establishes Leadership Endowment

Stanley and Doris Moe '34 of Los Angeles, California established an endowment within the Delta Tau Delta Educational Foundation to support the Delt Leadership Academy. A gift of stock was made, and the income from the endowment will be utilized to support the chapter leadership academy.

Stan and Doris wish to encourage leadership development among members of the Fraternity, so Deltas would assume additional leadership roles in their careers, communities, associations, etc. The Leadership Academy will be taught from a corporate perspective, with instructors coming from business and industry. This will ensure quality, as well as a strong applications focus rather than theoretical.

Robert Muhs '76 of Apple Valley, Minnesota is chairing the program for the Educational Foundation, with assistance from Merlin Dewing '56 of Darien, Connecticut. Twenty Deltas participated in the pilot Leadership academy a year ago, with a two-day curriculum. Additionally four North Dakota Deltas have been selected to participate in the National Leadership Academy: Chuck Pineo, Mike Otremba, Dave Sickels, and Aaron Karow. All four were elected to executive positions in the chapter, and Chuck Pineo was elected President of the Intrefraternity Council (IFC).

Stan Moe was one of six founders of Daniel, Mann, Johnson, and Mendenhall (DMJM), one of the world's largest architectural, planning and engineering firms with over 1000 employees in the U.S. and hundreds of staff in many other countries. He was a pioneer in expanding architecture and engineering services to an international scale, established more than two dozen foreign offices himself. After returning to the U.S. to manage the firm, he managed very large and complex projects on a world-wide basis, and played significant leadership roles in the development of the U.S. Space Program. He organized and directed the design for such space vehicles as the Atlas, Jupiter, Thor, Titan I, the lunar excursion module and the space shuttle. He chaired the effort to design all prototype and training facilities for the Titan I missile system, and the ground support and launch facilities for the space shuttle on both East and West coasts. In recognition of those accomplishments, the University of North Dakota conferred upon Brother Moe an Honorary Doctor of Engineering Degree on May 16, 1993, and he received a Sioux Award in 1985.

A native of Ross, North Dakota, Stan and wife Doris live in Los Angeles, California, where he moved in 1947 to start his own firm.

Paul Robinson '32, Benefactor

For four years, an anonymous donor was listed as giving $32,000 to the Delta Tau Delta Educational Foundation to retire the mortgage on the chapter house. Permission has been given to announce the donor of that magnificent gift - J. Paul Robinson '32 of Garrison, North Dakota. On behalf of North Dakota Delts everywhere, a public thank you to Brother Robinson.

Brother Robinson has been very active alumnus over the years often attending functions, events, counseling chapter leaders, and encouraging other alumni to participate to build a stronger chapter at UND. When the Chapter was having some difficult years in the

Paul served on the House Corporation and then the Education Foundation until he retired from the board in June of 1990. His efforts were exceptional in raising funds for a new chapter house and in establishing the endowment for scholarships and awards. Paul was the first major contributor to the construction of the new Shelter, and is second to George Allen '36 in total gifts. Paul's leadership gift encouraged George to match his gift of $32,000. Bruce Gjovig commented, "The Chinese say, he who gives early gives twice," and his leadership gift gave confidence to others to give generously to the Fraternity to help our students maximize their education and experience while at UND. Paul's sincere interest in the undergraduates and their education is

In a 1976 letter sent out to other alumni encouraging them to participate in the fund drive to build a new Shelter, Paul wrote, "I have always felt that my association with Beta Chi and Delt were as valuable to me, or more,

Paul established the Max Allen '34 Education Scholarship Fund to honor and remember his college friend who was a top school administrator in California, and who died of a heart attack in 1962 at age 52. An elementary school building in Gonzales, CA bears his name. Max's widow, Amy, has become interested in the Fraternity, as well as the yearly scholarship that is given in Max's (please see Paul Robinson)

Wanted: Mentors

Delts are looking for a few good men!

In today's competitive environment our graduating seniors need all the help they can get. As most people know, getting that first job is the most difficult and also the most important. If we can help give our undergraduates an inside view into their chosen professions, then maybe we can give them the extra edge they need.

Working through the Educational Foundation we would like to create a list of Alumni who would be willing to invest both time and guidance to our undergraduates. Matching one undergraduate and one alumnus in a chosen field, correspond and can then begin. It is our hope that both can benefit and learn from each other.

In the next few months a letter will be going out outlining the program and soliciting your ideas and opinions. This program is just another part of our continuing effort to provide both educational and financial support in an increasingly more competitive career environment.

Alumni Mentoring Undergraduates

For the second time in as many years several alumni will return to Delta Xi to speak to the undergraduates about their careers. Two years ago the alumni talk was geared toward aviation. This year, reflecting the more diversified undergraduates, alumni from fields in accounting, banking, physical therapy, as well as aviation will speak to the chapter. The purpose of these get-togethers is to give the undergraduates a glimpse of life in the world of their field of study. All too often a graduate is armed with a degree, but with little knowledge of how to "Get there, from here." Hopefully these talks will help shed a little light on one of life's greatest mysteries, getting the right job. One of the greatest gifts' alumni can give to undergraduates is information on careers.

Spring Rush

As the new Rush Chairman, my main goal is to use my committee to have fun with the idea of Rush. Not that it hasn't been fun before, but we hope to make it even more fun and interesting by trying some things that haven't been tried in awhile or at all. After meeting with a visiting Chapter Consultant, the Rush Committee is pumped and ready to try some new ideas. The Rush Committee is ready for another great year of Rush!
