GOING, GOING, GONE !

This will be the last issue of the '2700,' but don't panic quite yet. The newsletter will continue with a new look and a new name. It will still have the same interesting and informative articles that it has always had. So don't move, or you might miss the next exciting issue of the newsletter.

PARENTS-ALUMNI BANQUET/SWEETHEART BALL

On March 2, 1985 the Delts from North Dakota will be hosting their annual Parents-Alumni Banquet and Sweetheart Ball. There will be an open house all weekend beginning on Friday, March 1. You are invited to attend the events in the following schedule. Accompanying this schedule is a list of local Grand Forks motels to help you make reservations for the weekend. I hope you will be able to attend this entertaining event. Unless otherwise noted, all events will take place at the Shelter.

Friday, March 1	5:30 pm	Dinner
	7:00 pm	Cash Bar
Saturday, March 2	11:30 am	Lunch

JOHNSONOMICS IS HERE TO STAY !

Along with the new election of officers came a new philosophy about the structuring of the committees and general day-to-day activities of the house. Johnsonomics has merged some of the committees which were similar, thereby making them more efficient, helping to eliminate the problem of too many chiefs. The people responsible for Johnsonomics and appointees are:

President	Joe Johnson
Internal Vice-President	Bob Henkes
External Vice-President	Kurt Groeger
Treasurer	George Tatro
Recording Secretary	Tom Judy
Corresponding Secretary	Jay Bieber
Guide	TJ Foley
Sgt. At Arms	Eric Kishel
Food Chairman	Jim Deblock
House and Grounds Chairman	Tom Judy
Pledge Education Chairman	Eric Kishel
Social/Intramural Chairman	Eastman Johnson
Public Relations/IFC Chairman	Brien Morgen
Scholarship/Alumni Relations Chairman	Tip Tipton

THERE'S GOLD IN THEM THERE HILLS ?

Delta Xi will be celebrating its golden anniversary in October during UND's Homecoming. We are now planning for this exceptional event and we hope you will plan to be there. There will be a schedule of this week in our next newsletter.
